Abstract

This report presents a statistical description of the 2,331 offenders released to the street from a Massachusetts correctional facility during 1985. This report also presents some information on trends among releases over the last six years.

Some highlights of the information included in this report are:

- The 2,331 releases in 1985 represents an increase of 206 (10 percent) over 1984 releases and an increase of 1316 (130 percent) over 1980 releases.
- Sixty-percent were released by parole, 24 percent were discharged and 15 percent were released by expiration of sentence.
- Fifty-nine percent were released from secure facilities and 41 percent were released from lower security facilities. Many of those released from secure facilities were females or parole violators.
- The average time served was 58.5 months for individuals serving Cedar Junction sentences, 23.0 months for individuals serving Concord sentences, and 4.4 months for individuals serving Framingham sentences.

Introduction

This report is a statistical description of individuals released to the street from facilities of the Massachusetts Department of Correction during 1985. The tables which follow contain information on the nature of the present offense, personal background characteristics, criminal history, furlough program participation and release characteristics for these individuals. The information contained in these tables was derived from the computerized data base developed by the Correction and Parole Management Information System (CAPMIS) and was produced by the Operations Research Unit on the Regent's Computer Network (RCN). Some information is also reported on trends in the release population over the last six years, 1980 to 1985.

Only those individuals who were released to the street by the authority of the Parole Board, by expiration of sentence, or by a certificate of discharge are included in the report. Individuals who were released to another correctional authority or to another sentence are not included. Individuals who were released by means other than parole, discharge or expiration are not included in the report. This includes releases by court order, death and escape. Individuals transferred to other correctional authorities to serve their sentences who are subsequently released are not included in the report; individuals transferred from other authorities who were subsequently released from a DOC facility are included in the report. Individuals who were released more than once during 1985 are counted as multiple cases in the report.

In reading the tables in this report, the reader should note the following: (1) the release population is divided according to the institution of release; (2) the top number in each cell represents the number of individuals who fall in the corresponding category in the table; (3) the bottom number in each cell represents the percentage of the number of individuals in a particular category to the total number of releases from that institution (column percents).

For example, upon referring to the table on page 34, committing institution is presented and the following types of information can be obtained:

- (1) the number of releases from each facility in 1985; and,
- (2) the number and percentage of releases from each institution who were originally committed to each of the committing institutions.

The reader should note that the rate of unknowns is relatively high for certain variables, especially certain social history variables. Caution should be used in interpreting these variables.

Releases From the DOC, 1980 to 1985

During the last six years the number of releases from the DOC rose dramatically, from 1,015 in 1980 to 2,331 in 1985. This represents an increase of 130 percent over this period. Table 1 (on pages 8 through 10) shows selected characteristics of releases for each year in this period. The increase occurred for both male and female releases. Male releases increased from 799 in 1980 to 1616 in 1985 (102 percent). Female releases increased from 216 in 1980 to 715 in 1985 (270 percent).

In 1985, 45 percent of all males were released from secure facilities and 55 percent were released from lower security facilities. This is similar to the pattern of releases over the previous five years. In contrast, 89 percent of the females were released from secure facilities and 11 percent from lower security facilities. This is similar to the pattern of prior years.

Most males released from the DOC were serving Concord sentences, most females released from the DOC were serving county sentences. The type of sentence that individuals were serving prior to release is shown in Table 1.

Type of release is related to the type of sentence served. Most males are released by parole and most females are released by expiration of sentence. The pattern of types of release is shown in Table 1.

The average time served varies by the type of sentence served. For 1985 releases the average time served for a Cedar Junction sentence was 58.5 months, the average time served for a Concord sentence was 23.0 months and the average time served for a Framingham sentence was 4.4 months. From the data presented in Table 1 there appears to be a slight increase in time served for Concord sentences, from 17.9 months in 1982 to 23.0 months in 1985. Time served for Cedar Junction or Framingham sentences do not exhibit any clear trends.

Thus, over the past six years releases from the Department increased dramatically. The percentage increase has been more marked for females than for males. Overall patterns of release, including institution released from, type of release and type of sentence show little change. There seems to be some increase in time served for Concord releases.

A Profile of 1985 Releases

Release Characteristics

Because males and females differ on many characteristics, Tables 2 and 3 (on pages 13 through 16) present selected characteristics of the offender and the release by the sex of the individual releasee. All the other tables that follow show the released population by the institution that the offender was released from.

Institution Released From. Table 2 presents information on the specific institution and security level from which individuals were released by the sex of the offender. For male releases, 45 percent were released from secure facilities and 55 percent were released from lower security facilities. In contrast, 89 percent of all females were released from secure facilities and 11 percent were released from lower security facilities.

In order to maintain the privacy of the individual offenders, no information is presented for institutions from which fewer than five individuals were released. This affects the presentation of all remaining data for three institutions (Lemuel Shattuck, Medfield and Hodder Cottage). In the case of the three releases from Lemuel Shattuck they are included in the following tables as released from the institution they were in prior to placement at the hospital (in one case Concord and in two cases Framingham). The single release from Hodder cottage is included in with Framingham releases. The two releases from Medfield are included in the total column but do not appear elsewhere in the tables.

Parole Violators. For male releases, the security level released from is often related to parole violator status, that is, many of the releases are actually parole violators being re-released on a sentence. Of the 733 male releases from secure facilities, 305 (42 percent) were parole violators. In contrast, only 36 (6 percent) of the 636 females released from secure facilities were parole violators. Overall, 25 percent of the males and 5 percent of the females were parole violators.

Sentence Type. For female releases, the security level released from is related to the type of sentence served. In 1985, 89 percent of the females released from the DOC were serving county sentences which typically are very short. In contrast, only 8 percent of the males released from the DOC were serving county sentences.

Type of Release. For males the most common type of release is parole, accounting for 73 percent of all releases in 1985. In contrast, 33 percent of females were paroled. For females, the most common type of release is expiration of sentence or discharge, accounting for 67 percent of all releases. In contrast, 27 percent of males were discharged or released by expiration of sentence.

Time Served. Table 3 shows time served until first release by committing institution and offense. Time served varies greatly by committing institution (58.5 months for Cedar Junction, 23.0 months for Concord and 4.4 months for Framingham). Time served also varies by offense. For example, individuals committed to Cedar Junction served an average of 91.2 months for rape and 65.3 months for armed robbery; and individuals committed to Framingham served an average of 1.0 months for shoplifting and 4.5 months for larceny.

1. Individuals who were parole violators, were originally committed to another authority or were serving complex sentences (forthwith, split, fines or from & after sentences) were excluded from the analysis.
2. Offenses were selected based on the frequency with which they appear among the releasee group.
3. Armed Assault includes Armed Assault in a Dwelling, A&B with D.W. and Assault with D.W.

Nature of Present Offense

Sentencing Courts. Originally 64 percent of the releases were sentenced in Superior Courts including 20 percent from Suffolk Superior Court, 9 percent from Middlesex Superior Court and 11 percent from Worcester Superior Court. Twenty-eight percent of the releases were sentenced in District or Municipal Courts. Six percent were transfers from other jurisdictions (out-of-state, federal or county inmates).

Jail Credits. Fifty-six percent of the releases spent time in jail prior to their commitment; 44 percent had spent no time in jail prior to their commitment.

Commitment Institution. Cedar-Junction commitments represented 29 percent of all releases; Concord commitments represented 35 percent of all releases and Framingham commitments represented 30 percent of all releases. There were 147 (6 percent) individuals released who were originally committed to another jurisdiction.

Sentence. Thirteen individuals who originally received life sentences were released during 1985. Most releases (70 percent) were serving either indeterminate sentences or county sentences.

Present Offense. Forty-seven percent of the releases were serving sentences for violent offenses (41 percent for person offenses and 6 percent for sex offenses), 25 percent were serving sentences for property offenses, 10 percent for drug offenses and 18 percent for "other" offenses.

Age at Incarceration. The median age at incarceration for the releases during 1985 was 25 years old.

Personal Background Characteristics

Sex. Sixty-nine percent of the releases were male and 31 percent were female. The number of females released in 1985 increased by 9 percent over 1984 and the number of males released increased by 10 percent.

Race. Twenty-nine percent of the releases were black and 67 percent were white. There were 6 Native Americans and 2 Asians in the release group. Ten percent of all releases were Hispanic.

Marital Status. The majority of releases (66 percent) were single.

Military Discharge. Of the 2152 releases for whom information was known, 88 percent had never served in the military.

Prior Address. The largest group of releases (46 percent) came from the Boston MSA.

Occupation. Most releases whose occupations were known had worked in the areas of manual labor (47 percent) or services (29 percent).

Education. The median educational level for the 1985 releases was eleventh grade; 41 percent had achieved at least a high school level of education.

Criminal History

The rate of unknowns for the Criminal History variables is 9 percent, the percentages below are based on those cases where criminal history information is known.

Prior Court Appearances. The median age at first court appearance was seventeen years. The median number of court appearances prior to their current commitment was 10. A majority of the releases had previously appeared in court for person offenses (73 percent) and property offenses (81 percent). A minority had appeared in court for sex offenses (13 percent), alcohol offenses (28 percent) and escapes (9 percent). Almost half of the releases had court appearances for drug offenses (45 percent).

Prior Incarcerations. Thirty-four percent of the releases during 1985 had prior incarcerations in a house of correction and 22 percent had prior incarcerations in a state or federal correctional institution. Overall, 47 percent of the releasees had served some time as an adult for another offense.

Prior Paroles. Six percent had been paroled while a juvenile and 40 percent of those had received a parole violation while a juvenile. Sixteen percent of the releases during 1985 had been paroled as an adult and 53 percent of those had previous parole violations. Overall, 19 percent had been paroled at least once prior to their current release and 52 percent of those had previous parole violations.

Furlough Program Participation

Twenty-eight of the releases had one or more furloughs during their present incarceration; 72 percent had no participation in the furlough program. Only eleven individuals had one or more furlough escapes. Five percent of the 1985 female releasees and 38 percent of the male releasees had one or more furloughs during their present incarceration. This difference is due, in large measure, to the fact that such a large number of females received relatively short county sentences.
